DEDICATED TO

MRS. HELEN CAMPANALE

On behalf of the class of 1987, the yearbook staff would like to dedicate this book to Mrs. Helen Campanale. For two years, she has been more than a class advisor, she has been a loyal friend, a parent and someone to turn to in need. Mrs. Campanale's commitment to class advisor had led us to many goals and accomplishments. She has opened her house in time of need. Thru good times and bad, she kept a smile on her face and pushed us on. Mrs. Campanale has treated us all equal and helped us to fight for our rights. Once again we would like to extend our gratitude and thanks to Mrs. Campanale.

Love,
Darlene Gagnon

Personal and Family Living is a course in which students learn about themselves, their peers and what life has in store for them when they graduate from high school. The main event comes at the end of the school year. It is the weddings which take place and involve the students in each class.

There is a lot of planning and stress involved in preparing for these weddings. First of all, students must have money and lots of it. They also need flowers, tuxes, gowns, presents for the wedding party, and a place for the reception. It is also important to have good food, a good band, and a photographer.

Our mock weddings were as close to the real thing as we could get them. We had three separate weddings, one for each class. The first class's wedding party was made up of Darlene Gagnon, the bride; Leah Yaylaian, her made of honor; and Tracy O'Brien, her bridesmaid. It also included Craig Alex, the groom; David Laino, the best man; and Jim Joncas, the usher.

Bride Darlene Gagnon and groom Craig Alex enjoy a special moment.

The second wedding party was made up of Becky Cournoyer, the bride; Julie Greenlaw, the maid of honor; Debbie Tulloch, Tara Regan and Stacy Williams, Bridesmaids. It also included Mike Speroni, the groom; Scott Booth, and best man; Scott Bull and Steve Pashoian, ushers.

Much planning and preparation went into all three weddings. Students invited speakers and went on field trips to learn more about weddings and setting up their first home. Jan, from Jan's Bridals, spoke to all three classes and provided the wedding gowns free of charge. For this wedding, Robert L's donated the tuxes.

Members of each class spent morning decorating the auditorium. There were wooden arches with crepe paper flowers, streamers, and flowers down the side of the aisles. Each wedding was a tremendous success which ended with a reception enjoyed by all.

The third P & F wedding party was made up of Kim Pigaga, the bride; Jodi Turpin, her maid of honor; Tammy Gendron and Chris Wojtowicz, bridesmaids. It also included John Malvey, the groom; Eric Bergenholtz, best man; Mike Swift and Randy Jendrzewski, ushers.

For weeks students went over the responsibilities involved and prepared decorations, and made arrangements for tuxes, gowns, food and flowers. The tuxes for the wedding were provided by Mr. Tux of Shrewsbury, free of charge. In class students went over vows and time schedules to make sure that everything would run smoothly. All contributed their time and effort to make the wedding successful. All decisions were made in class by the students.

These weddings were a lot of fun for all students involved, but they were also a great deal of hard work. We would like to thank all teachers, businesses, and participants who made the weddings possible and successful.

IN MEMORY OF . . .

BRIAN ELLIS

February 1, 1969 — May 19, 1986

As time goes on our memories of you somehow become faded. Not because we have forgotten you, but because our lives just aren't used to your not being here. As we search into the past we recall all the memories, both good and bad, that we once shared. And we wish that those weren't just memories, but realities, that you were still by our sides. I can still remember how we used to be in our younger years from kindergarten to high school. How we both held each other and wished that these times would never, ever end. And then we would laugh because somehow we knew that as we grew up things would change. Remember our childhood dreams, to become dancers, firemen, and members of the military? And how we always kept each other reaching for the stars to achieve our goals? As we grew up we matured and drifted apart. Not because we no longer cared for each other, but because we were growing and living in many different life styles. Looking back we recall all of the precious times that we shared. But now looking we begin to ask ourselves, "What happened to those precious times?" Brian Ellis, you were and still are part of everyone's memories. We just wish that you were here to accompany us to our destination. Our hearts still remember that beautiful smile and that perfect personality that you once displayed. And we let you know that you are loved and missed more than you could ever possibly imagine.

LIFE IN THE DAY OF AN INDIAN

GREEN AND WHITE!!!

The Grafton Indians had their third "Super Season in football during 1986-87." Co-captains Mike Ross, Eric Berenholtz, Jim Joncas and Craig (Stumpy) Alex, passed along their great spirit called "The Grafton Way" The Indians had a 10-1 record winning the S.W.C.L. title and the "Super Bowl" against a powerhouse Keefe Tech team. The super score was Grafton 16 Keefe 9. But who can forget the North-bridge Blowout or winning the West Boylston game on turkey day to give us the Super Bowl berth.

(top) Ambitious Seniors on the way to yet another win.
(bottom) Dirty and determined, Dan Fleming runs down the field.

Eric Bergeholtz going for a pass.

(top) Co-captain Craig Alex leaves the field in disgust.
(bottom) Rob Starkey moving in for the play.

Jim Joncas avoiding the oponents.

(top) At half-time Bill Drumm sits in amazement.
(bottom) Dan Warner during a half-time playing session.

Little Indians

Although the J.V. football team had a disappointing season, coach Steve Wojnar, kept us in good spirits throughout the season and taught us many new things. We learned the shotgun and wishbone formations and new blocking techniques. Led by co-captains Norman Laviolette and Patrick O'Rourke the team practiced rain or shine. The J.V. team played the games: tied one, and lost the rest. Although we were disappointed, we had to lift our spirits and think about the season to come.

Indian Alpesh Patel block on coming players to protect his own man.

The team gets pep talk from coach Steve Wojnar.

I can't believe I have the ball!

Brian Brueggemann standing guard, watches his teammates complete a play.

Mass confusion on the field.

Cheer Up!

The 1986 football cheerleading squad cheered on the football team to its third superbowl championship. The squad was led by captains Kim Pigaga and Sandy Houde and seniors Tammy Gendron and Carlene Campanale. Their season began with practices in the summer, and they also held a pep rally, making all the senior football players stuffed footballs. With the help of the whole squad, the cheerleaders this year performed 100% better than past years. The squad made many memories together, which no one will forget.

Carlene yells to the crowd.

Captains Kim Pigaga and Sandi Houde cheer their team on to victory.

"How do you do?"

Kathi Reed greets our opponents during the half-time.

Kim Ayres raising the crowd's spirit.

On the field again!

Although this year's field hockey team did not go to the districts the season was very enjoyable. The team was led by seniors Dawn Caputo, Lyn Loughlin, Sandy Grew, Sally Malbouef, Lori Daulphinais, and Deb Holmes. The varsity coach was Maureen Cimoch and the J.V. coach was Mike Flinn. The team faced tough competition from Uxbridge and Oxford but held their own throughout the season. The season was filled with funtimes and hard practices.

"It's mine!"

Maureen Murphy looks to pass to a teammate.

Becky Patterson dribbles down the court.

This year the girls basketball team, which was coached by Gary Nelson, ended the season with a 4-13 record. The team, led by captains Kris Gravel and Becky Patterson, did not have a winning season but when they played hard, they played good. They beat Assabet, Oxford, and Northbridge twice. Leading scorer this year was Kathleen Cleary and leading rebounder was Kelly Reed. Although the team will be losing three seniors, next year there will be more players joining and returning players with hopes of a successful team.

Kris Gravel looks for the pass.

Kelly Reed tries to keep control of the ball!

Senior Dawn Caputo playing tough.

Kathleen Cleary, hands up on defense.

Go Team Go!!!

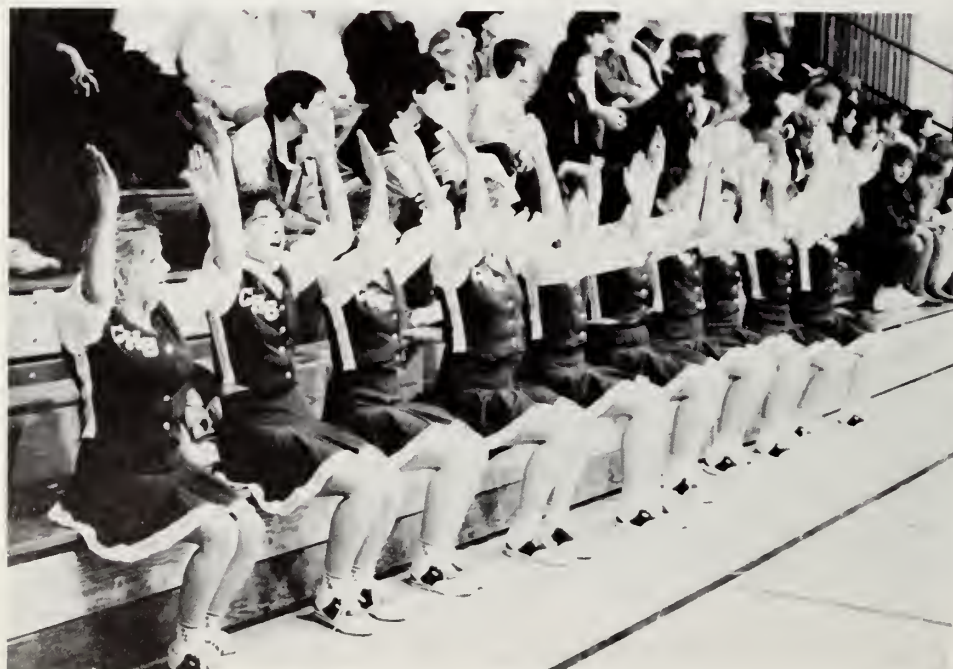

This year's basketball cheerleading squad consisted of captains Sandy Grew, Kim Pigaga, and Sandi Houde. Other members were Kathi Reed, Kara Nichols, Nina Taurus, Kim Ayres, Amy Benson, Cheryl O'Toole and Pam Fields. In addition to cheering on the boys during the regular season and Clark Tournaments, the squad also cheered at tournaments and at the Worcester Centrum. Six squads across Massachusetts were chosen for the Harlem Globetrotters and Grafton was one of them. Many hours of practice and hard work went into composing the cheer. The girls also competed in the David Prouty tournament. Over all the season was successful and enjoyable.

The cheering squad shows their ability.

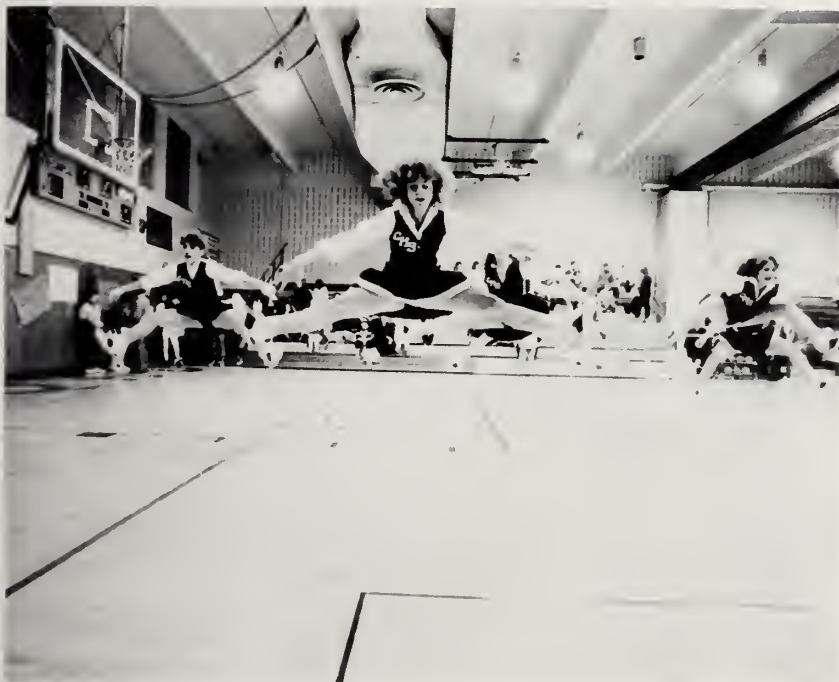

Kara Nichols welcomes the opposing team with a cheer.

The squad performs a cheer from the bench.

The girls raising spirit from the crowd.

The cheerleaders jumping high.

"Be careful, don't fall!"

The girls smiling pretty!

This year's hockey team was led by Co-Captains Craig Alex and Jeff Dame. Even though the team did not win many games, they never gave up their struggle for victory: The boys practiced long hours together in hopes of making a better team. This year the team had a new coach, Bob Benoit. He brought lots of fun and spirit to the team. Hopefully next year's team will be more successful. Good luck boys!!

John Peters sneaks around the back of the net.

Dawn throws her hardest.

"Help, my elbow's stuck."

It's not going to get by me."

"I know that was in."

"Try and get past me."

Becky Patterson casts a spell.

Tracey Wellman hits the ball.

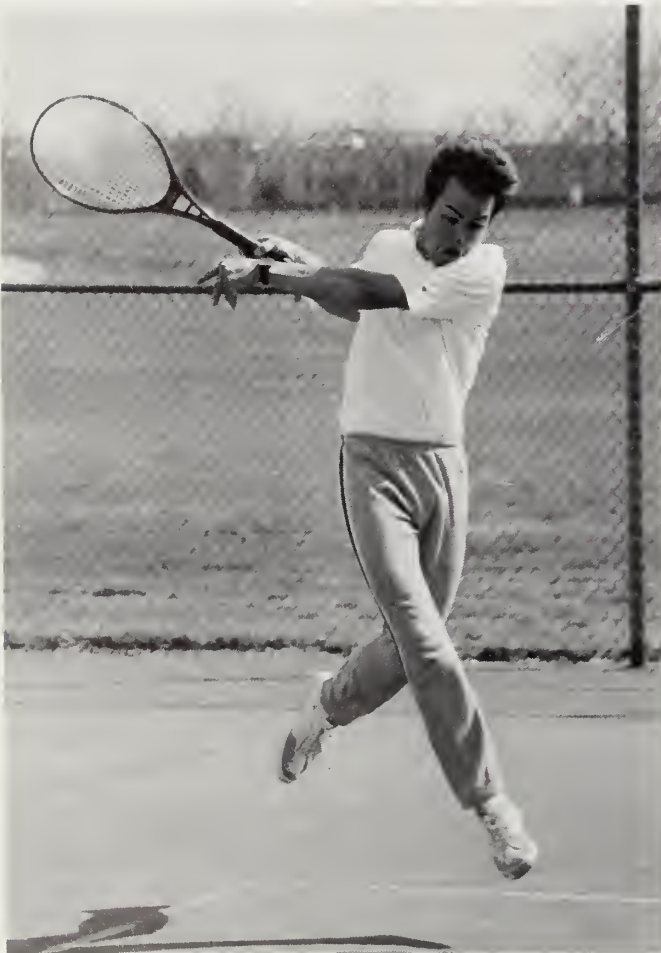

"OUCH!"

Racquet time!

"I can handle this."

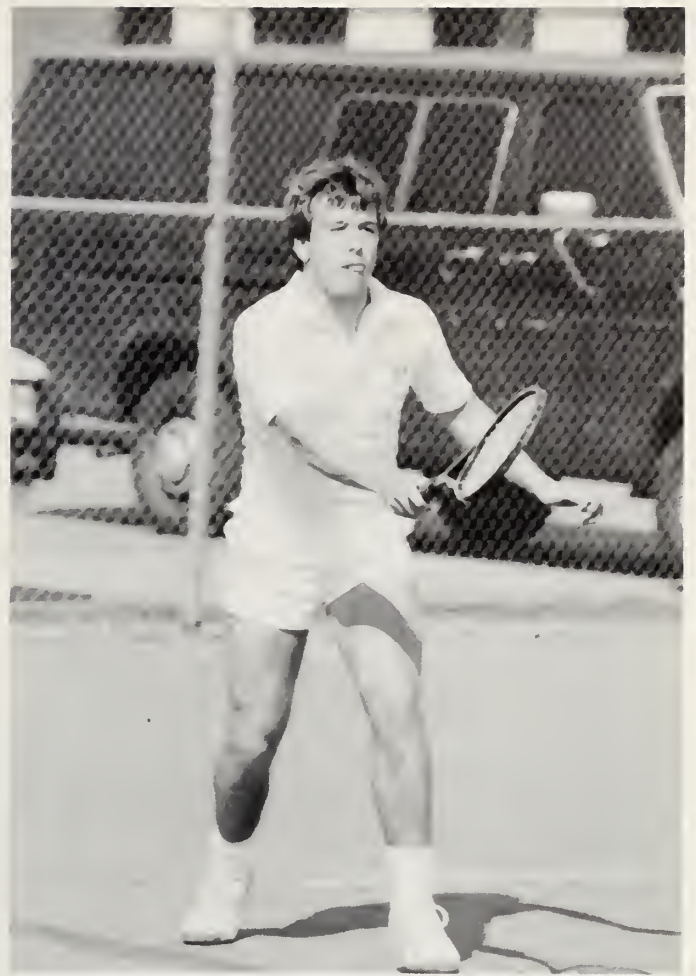

Oops, I almost stepped on that spider!!!

Kev Molinari goes for the ball.

"Wait, do it again, I'm going crooked."

Eric awaits the ball.

Kev tries for the outside shot.

"Hang in there, I'll get it."

Over the net

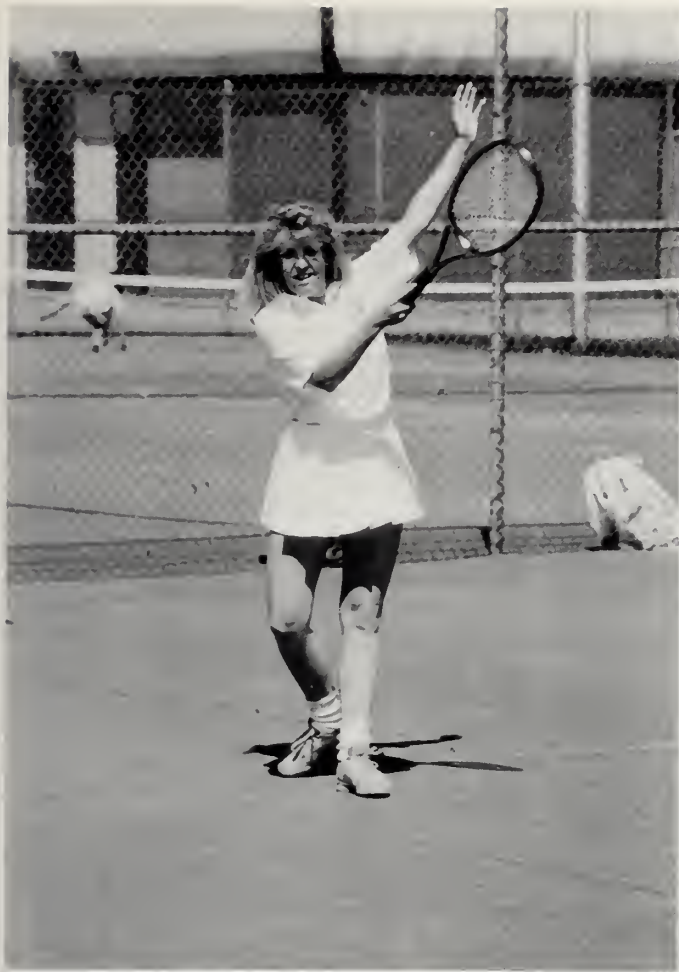

Pam Fields concentrates hard on this shot.

"I Got It! I Got It!!!"

'You think your getting away?'

"Like to dance anyone?"

Nancy Mara tries her hardest.

Pam Fields lays it down the line.

On the right track

This year's track team seemed to set a goal in the beginning and did quite well. With many activities going on in a meet, each player was deeply concerned about everyone's turn. The whole team worked hard together as a team and it showed in the end.

Roy Rohlfing takes the time to shake a few hands.

Senior John Westgate give it his might.

Let's beat these guys

I know I can.

Catch me If you can.

Are you sure this is what you want me to do?

Thanks bud!

GIRLS! GIRLS!! GIRLS!!!

Although this year's season was not quite successful in regular meets, they did well at the S.W.C.L. meet and placed third. This year's team was led by seniors captain Sandi Houde, Chris Beaber, Tina Gauthier and Leah Hutchinson. Since the team consisted of only 29 girls it was hard to win all meets but the spirit of the team mates was strong. The season was filled with much excitement and hard work.

15 to 9, What a time

Once again the Grafton High School football team won the Division III Superbowl for the third straight year. As with the past Superbowls, this year was probably the most exciting, Grafton was behind for three quarters losing 9-0 to a strong Keefe Tech, team. In the last part of the third quarter the team kicked a field goal and was then behind by 6. With some dazzling defense and startling offense the team scored a touchdown and the extra point to go up to the score of 10-9. In the last part of the fourth quarter Grafton scored once again for the final points and won 16-9. Congratulations to the team and good luck to the seniors.

Seniors Mike Ross and Kevin Arsenault watch as Rene Daigle completes a tackle.

Dan Fleming congratulates friend and team mate Bill Drumm on the win.

Stumpy motions to Jimmy to begin the Pee-Wee Herman dance.

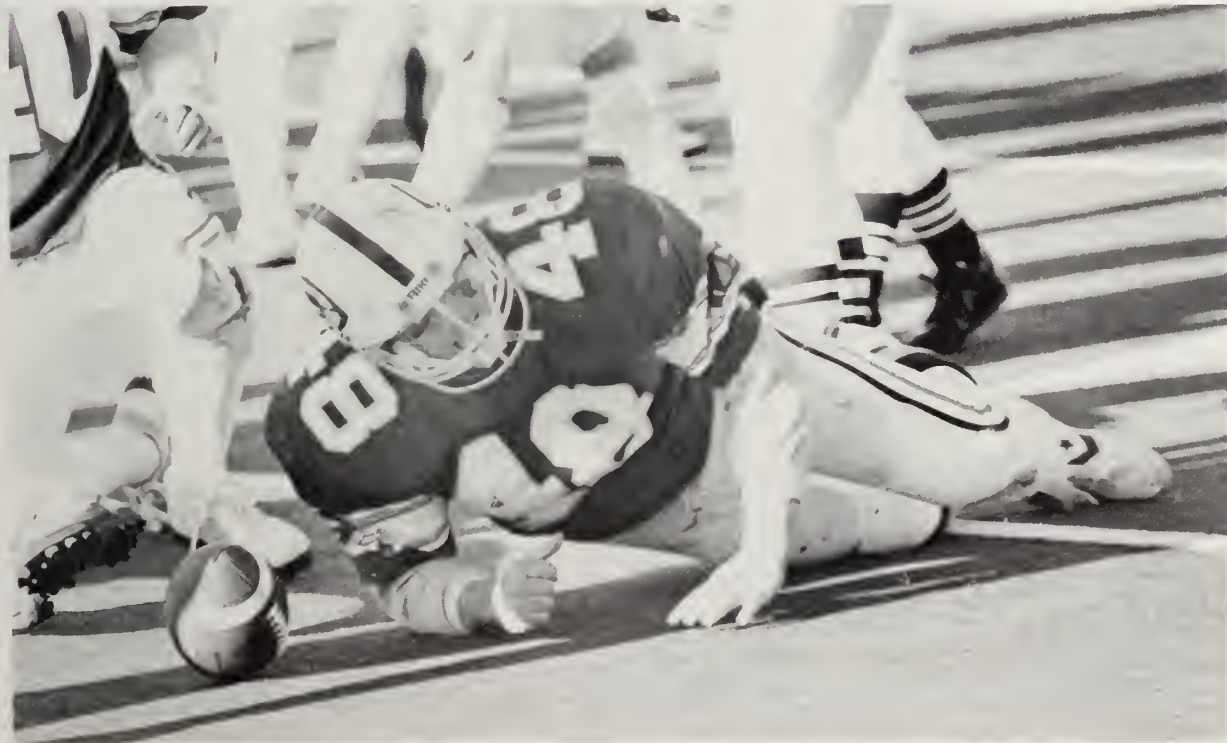

Eric Bergenholtz attempting to complete a pass.

Kevin Holland congratulates freshman Mike Inman on a successful kick.

Clark Tournament

This year's basketball team had a tremendous season. After winning their way to Clark Tournament, it seemed as if nothing was going to stand in their way. Unfortunately the other team did. Even though Grafton did not win the tournament they never gave up the dreams of winning. These boys practiced long hard hours to prepare for the big game, and even though they were ready, the other team was just too good. We would like to congratulate the whole team on their hard work and spirit throughout the season. Good luck next year.

Heaven in your eyes!!

Prom. Yes, that special night is here! The one you waited for all year long. The prom. Grafton High's Prom was one to be remembered. The Prom Committee worked very hard to complete this year's decorations. As you would enter the Prom, you saw so many beautiful and handsome people. Everyone there looked like either a prince or princess. Many beautiful memories were made at this year's prom. Ones that no one forgets.

King Eric Bergenholtz and his date Angela Gemelli share a special dance.

Senior Court: Lisa Misterka escorted by Mike Swift, Suzanne Gemelli escorted by Matt Didonna, Queen Carlene Campanale escorted by Bill Drumm, Tara Regan escorted by Mario Polselli, and Sandi Houde escorted by Tony Molinari

Here's looking at ya!

Rich and Pam share a special moment.

Senior Dawn Caputo tries to enjoy herself while Todd Zastawny just smiles.

Scott Bull consoles Kara Nichols after her leap down the stairs.

The junior court: Michele Cooper and date, Angela Gemelli escorted by Eric Bergenholtz, Lady in waiting Karen Morris and J.R. Mitchell, Kerri Malvey escorted by John Dunne, and Shannon Fleming escorted by Chris Faucher

Don't take my picture!!

Jeff Lebel and Tracy Bjorndal enjoying the prom.

Hold on to the Moment

Single file and yet together
We have shared our greatest days.
And we carry common memories
In different ways.
Though we don't know where we're going,
We will cherish where we've been.
I want to cry.
I want to shout . . .
Want to let this feeling out.
Hold on to the moment.
Let the feelings show.
Hold on to the moment.
Never let it go.
I can picture us together with my arms around my friends.
Just let me hold on to this moment,
Before it ends.
There was laughter, There were tears,
Through the dozen golden years.

MEMORIES

Graduation is a very special time, a time when students realize that high school is now over and it's time to face the outside world. This year's graduation was a strange one. Due to the terrible weather, the lights went out 5 minutes after the ceremony began. With the help of Mr. Lemay and Mr. Lynch, all ran as smooth as possible. After the awards were given out, it was time for the diploma's. As we walked across the stage single file, amazingly the lights came on as a sign of guideness. When the ceremony was over and the graduates had to return their gowns, a familiar sight was friends hugging each other with tears in their eyes. "We made it through the years!!"

Valedictorian Lisa Misterka gives her speech.

Ready for our dismissal slips.

Salutatorian Kevin Molinari gives his speech.

It's over!

Mr. Lynch gives out the scholarships.

Mrs. Bates helps an impatient Amy Kinch get ready.

Tammy Gendron presents the class gift.

Invited guests.

REMEMBER WHEN ...

Jo Jo was under the table?

Bill stopped at a green light?

Leah Yaylain wore her pants backwards?

Dan broke the directional shifter in his car?

6th period open study with Debbie, Sandy, Jodi, Kris, and Rich?

Mr. Barlow sat on the bubble gum?

Mr. Richardson took the '86 History of Grafton class to the Artemus Ward House. I still say asinine is not a noun Harry?

Life was easy in high school?

Scott Booth was a mere mortal?

You liked school?

A small group went to Hampton, 4th of July?

Another small group became blood brothers the same day?

LY & MV went to Burger King and got caught; Michelle VR "Disturbed the peace?"

The cheerleaders did their hello cheer at Prouty and everyone fell, I wonder Why???

Practically the whole senior class went to breakfast and got caught?

Sally Malbouef got her pants pulled down in Stuarts parking lot?

Miss Kent fell down the stairs in the 7th grade?

A person was rolling around screaming "I'm so stoned" after smoking a cigarette?

The gang went dipping?

All of Norty's parties?

J.R. crashed his car?

Mike Ross got a life?

Steve Winalski was put out in the hall by Miss. Droney for misbehaving and disappeared when Jim Smolinski walked by?

Mike Ross had a good idea?

Kevin Arsenault flipped out on tabacco?

John Peters came into Algebra imitating Mr. Tite, not knowing J.T. was in the back of the room?

All the pumpkins in town appeared at one house?

Roller Skating was "the" thing to do?

We all thought we were the greatest as freshmen?

Tracy flipped over her desk for a piece of gum?

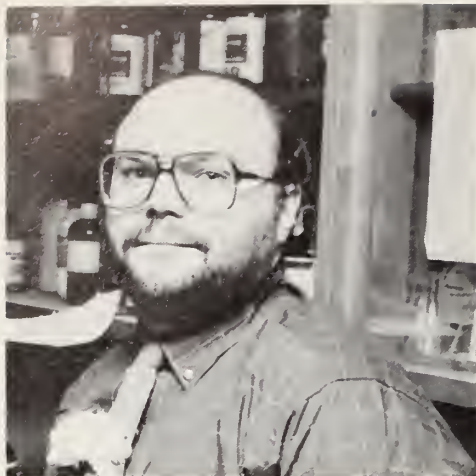

Chris's hand got smushed into a lasagna?

THIS IS IT!!!!!!

WHAT'S IN A YEARBOOK??

Many of you think putting together a yearbook is easy, BUT here's how it goes — You start off with many ideas and dreams on how you want your yearbook done. Then comes the real work.

Many long hours working together as a small team, preparing pages upon pages of pictures and stories that must fit together

Just when you thought you were done, you find mistakes that you could have sworn weren't there before.

When it was really time to get down to the nitty gritty you find out who is really willing to put time and effort into something that will keep our class together forever.

We would like to take this opportunity to present this yearbook to our fellow classmates in hopes that they will cherish this and realize that we did this for you. We would like to wish each and everyone of our fellow classmates the best of luck and we hope that ALL YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE!!!

Love,

Darlene, Tammy, Sandi H., and Laurie R.
